

Lessons We Should Have Learned by Now

Larry Lewis, with the National Transportation Safety Board, is our speaker. He plans to talk about planning and preparation, conducting preflight inspections, equipment and improvements. He will also talk about loss of control which is currently on the NTSB most wanted list, as well as basic flying and training skills. He will pose a challenge to the pilots and present information based on actual events and trends that we see today.
